

The conditions under which Place UK Ltd accept bookings incorporate all the details set out on this website and include the following conditions:

1. The accommodation is made available on the International Farm Camp by the Company as workers accommodation, and the Company therefore reserve the right to request that those participants not working leave the Camp.

Participants wishing to optout from the additional facilities membership can do so by giving 5 days' notice to the Camp Office.

2. Participants will look after their own money and property and will not hold R & J M Place Ltd, Place UK Ltd, Tunstead IFC Ltd, Tunstead International Farm Camp Club or any of its parent or subsidiary businesses or any of their employees responsible for any loss of property or money or sickness, or injury to persons or any other loss whatsoever; save only if and in so far as, such damage or loss is caused by the negligence or breach of duty of the International Farm Camp, the Club, the Company itself or its employees acting within the course of employment.
3. Participants living on site are required to keep the accommodation in a clean and tidy condition. Participants are expected to comply with the simple rules laid down for the smooth running of the Camp, disregards of which could result in dismissal. Full induction of the Camp rules will be provided upon arrival.
4. The Camp Management reserve the right in conjunction with the Police authorities to search any locker or participants luggage.
5. Participants arriving by car or purchasing a car whilst staying at the Camp are required to abide by the Company's Car Policy, a copy of which will be given to you on arrival, and provide the office with evidence of a valid Insurance certificate together with proof of vehicle tax and a Ministry of Transport (MOT) certificate if applicable.
6. Participants details maybe disclosed to government departments.
7. The Company reserves the right to amend their prices and the additional facilities it offers with or without prior notice.
